Eligibility:

To determine eligibility you must fill out all of the following forms:

- Accident report at your place of work
- C-3 form
- A-9 form

Important Information Needed Prior to Treatment:

- Date of accident
- Workers' Compensation claim number
- Claim adjuster's name and phone number
- If you have an attorney, their name and phone number

Number of Visits Allowed:

Unlimited visits allowed within a 90-day period, based on medical necessity. After 90 days, a request for more visits can be submitted.

Re-Examinations:

Re-exams are completed every 30 days. This is mandated by the Workers' Compensation Board.

Co-Payment:

$0 (zero dollars). You never have to make co-payments under a Workers' Compensation claim.

What Can Be Treated:

We can ONLY treat the body part(s) that you listed as injured in the accident report and forms you filled out.

Treatments Covered:

- Chiropractic care
- Physical therapy
- Pain management (trigger point injections)

All of these services are offered at this practice

Referrals:

We can give you a referral to another specialist to treat any other complaints you may have that are not listed in your Workers' Compensation claim.

Exacerbations (Relapse):

If you have an exacerbation to your initial condition after your treatment has been completed, a request can be submitted to the Workers' Compensation Board to get additional treatment for the exacerbation. They may approve more visits for another 90-day period.
